

School of Geography & Sustainable Development

Geographies of Sustainability, Society, Inequalities and Possibilities

GOSSIP Research Group
and the School of Geography & Sustainable Development
(organised in conjunction with the School of Management)

Professor Audrey Kobayashi

Queen's University (Kingston, Ontario)

Professor Audrey Kobayashi is a world-leading scholar, and has written ground-breaking work on gender, race, community and philosophy. She has been a visiting professor at the University of British Columbia, University College London, and Canterbury University, Christchurch. She has served as President of the Canadian Association of Geographers and as Editor of People, Place and Region, Annals of the Association of American Geographers.

Her work has shaped debates within and beyond Geography, making meaningful connections between critical and theoretical writing and public policy. She has been a Fulbright Fellow at the Migration Policy Institute in Washington, DC, and her current research builds on her expertise in race, community and justice in Canada.

4.30 pm on Monday 16 October 2017
Byre Studio, Byre Theatre, University of St Andrews
Reception to follow

PUBLIC TALK
ALL WELCOME

